CHURCH SERVICES.

At St. Paul's Church at 11 o'clock tomorrow Rev. Dr. Barryman Green will at the Southern Mathodist Church Mr. Walt Holcomb will conduct services in the morning and at night, as will Rev. C. R. S ansbury at the M. P. Church. Services in the other churches will be conducted by the resident clergy.

THE HOLCOMB MEETING

Tomorrow will be the la t day of the Holcomb revival meeting at the Washington Street Methodist church. All things considered, the effort has been successful, as shown by the number converted and the testimony of the members of the church, as to the good they had received. Last night was the last service that will be held until tomorrow morning, when there will be a great rally. The doors of theichurch will be opened as quite a number have indicated a desire to join. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock Mr. Holcomb will deliver his "Man Who Lacked One Thing," at the men's meeting. Last;Saturday there was a very large attendance, and more are expected tomorrow. Tomor-row night will be the "last call," when Messrs. Holcomb and Ronn ree will leave for home to spend the holidays before going to their next engagement in Missouri, on January 3rd.

DEATH OF A STUDENT.

Mr. James Athey Stephens, a student of the senior class at the Episcoral Semicary near this city, died quite sudienly sharily after 8 o'clock last sud tenly shartly after 8 o'clock last picht at the Episcopal Eye and Ear Hospital, in Washington. He went there last Tuesday for a simple operation expecing to return to the Saminary on Wednesday morning But cerebro- meningitis developed, causing death in a short time. The arst culmination of his ex-tremely serious condition was received at the Seminary vesterday when a num ber of students went over and a tele gram was at once sent to his family who reside near Covington, Ky. A funeral service was held at 2:30 in Epiphany Church, Washington, today, which was attended by the faculty and students of the Seminary and later the body was sent to his home in charge of a student. Mr. Stephens was about 29 years of age. He was a man of high character and consecration and his death on the threshold of his entrance upon the work of the ministry is deeply regretted by all friends at the Seminsry and elsewhere.

ACCIDENT TO CAR.

A broken flange on the front truck of a Falls Courch car late Thur day night caused a derailment near Mount Vernon station, in which several passengers were injured. They were Miss May Emerson of Washington; William Pierpont of Alexandria; an unidentified colored man of Alexandria county who was the most seriourly hurt, being injured about the head and body, and two women and a man, whose names was not accertained, suffering from shock. When the accident happened the train was going at a good rate of speed, and when derailed the car practically hung upon the edge of an eight-foot embankment. The six passengers were thrown from their state, bruised and shaken by the accident. Drs. H. C. Corbett and Wellburn, of Alexandria county, attended the injured.

WINDOW DISPLAY.

Among the many tasty displays so frequently made during the Caristmas frequently made during the Corresman holidays one on traversing King street could not possibly help noticing the windows of that popular family liquor store—Lowenbach Bros. In addition to a beautiful arrangement of choice wines and I quors, for which the firm is noted they have used every precaution to safeguard it. On either side of the window is the great American cagle to guard it by day; and in the center is the owl to look after it by night. When at certain times the owl says, "Who, who," the answ r comes from the king bird, "Wakefield, the medicinal whisky,"

WASHINGTON MONUMENT ASSO-CIATION.

At a meeting of the Washington Mor ument Association held on Thursday evening resolutions were adopted requesting Secator Daniel and Representative Unrha to intriduce bills in Congress appropriating $50,000 to restore Fort Elisworth, to build proper approaches thereto and to erect a monument to Washington on Shooter's Hill, west of this city. It is proposed to dedicate the Washington park on February 22 or April 30, the latter day being the an-niversary of Washington's first inaugu-
